Barbara Crawford lit a candle in honor of Monroe.

My dad will be greatly missed by his entire family and friends. There are many memories that we hold with him, that allow us to reflect and laugh upon at any given time. There was never a dull moment when he was in the room. He always told everyone in the family that "you got to have a game plan" and he's right, so our game plan is to continue with his legacy and love each other as my dad truly loved his family! RIH DAD..
