It is so hard to believe that you were gone. We just talked and texted not even 3 weeks ago. The night you got to Ft. Jackson. Since 2013, when we connected, we have been besties-sisters-cousins. We were like real sisters. People would ask us too. Cousin, I am still sick over this, but I know that God had a bigger and greater plan for your life. You touched the hearts of everyone you met and you never met a stranger. You were such a smart and talented woman and success was in your future. Take your rest Cousin. Your work down here is done. God is saying, WELL DONE, thy GOOD and FAITHFUL servant. You are gone from us but WILL NEVER EVER BE FORGOTTEN. Love Cousin Chelle!

Although I couldn't quite grasp the news that Pookie (Veronica) had passed, I still know & believe that God is perfect in all his ways. I've enjoyed the many times that we've shared together. She was a very hard worker, and always strive to go higher and higher. God #1 & then her kids and mother was highlights in her life. She loved her family hard. We made sure when we would see each other that we would make a big deal about how family should look out for each other. We instilled that love in our kids as well. As memories & tears are welling up, I close this note with a reminder of how the love of God can reach every hurt/broken place and staying rooted in God's Word won't shake us when trouble comes. If we hold on to the truth, we can endure this journey. So let's lift up each other in prayer & deeds as well as look out for each other; one soldier at a time. Love you so much family! - The Franklin's (Shavaun, Damon, Azayah, Esias, Harmony, Zion, & Melody)
